

PIPE NOTES

AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS—TWIN CITIES CHAPTER

James Frazier and Duruflé

The January TCAGO Event will be a presentation of James Frazier's new book entitled Maurice Duruflé – The Man and His Music. It will be held at Richfield Lutheran Church, 60th Street and Nicollet Avenue South on Sunday, January 27, 2008 at 4:00 pm.

Mr. Frazier's presentation will include unpublished photographs from Duruflé's childhood, youth and young adulthood, the choir school in Rouen, his apartments in Paris, and the Church of Saint-Etienne-du-Mont, where he was organist from 1929 until his death. He will discuss the origin and process of writing the book, the French opposition he encountered, and the Duruflé mystique. The book will be available for purchase at half price ($32.50). To reserve a copy contact Jim Frazier at jefrazier@visi.com or telephone him at 612.874.0929 BEFORE January 10, 2008.

Jim Frazier has been an active member of the TCAGO since moving to the Twin Cities in 1984. He was Director of Music for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis for ten years and is now Organist and Director of Music at St. John the Evangelist Episcopal Church in St. Paul.

The program will include a performance of the Fugue in c-minor; an unpublished composition written by Duruflé for a student competition in fugue. It was probably never performed during Duruflé's lifetime. We believe (free) copies will be available to those in attendance. Also, on the program will be the Prélude, récitatif et variations, op. 3, for flute, viola and piano; Rachel Hest, flute, Stephen Staruch, viola, Rodger Vine, pianist.

A graduate of Boston University, organist and pianist Rodger Vine studied privately in Paris with Maurice and Marie-Madeleine Duruflé, Jeanne Joulain and Jean Langlais. Madame Duruflé later wrote that Vine was a brilliant virtuoso with a volcanic technique. He made his American debut in 1977 at Old South Church in Boston, playing the complete works of Duruflé on the occasion of the composer's 75th birthday.

The program also will include a performance of the Prélude et fugue sur le nom d'ALAIN, op. 7 and other organ works of Duruflé.

The organ is a 3-manual, 33-rank Schantz. Carolyn Diamond is the organist of the church and will also be playing on the program.

The book is really good...amazing...I've read it.

Steve Gentile, Sub-dean and Program Chair

New CD Release

The highly regarded label ProOrgano has released Hamburger Rhetorik (CD 7166) by organist Leon W. Couch III. The recording celebrates the organ music from Hamburg with performances of free and chorale-based works by Dietrich Buxtehude, his contemporaries and his successors. The CD is accompanied by a 24-page scholarly booklet, which discusses the composer, the organs, the music, and the musical-rhetorical interpretations on the CD. The recording can be purchased through several retailers and directly through the label's website: www.proorgano.com. Please see page 8 in this issue.

Dean's Column

Greetings to All,

Thanks to Tom Ferry and the program committee for the well organized and enjoyable (Who ordered up that warm, sunny autumn morning?) October organ crawl. The instruments of Unity Church, the St. Paul Cathedral and the Louis Hill House provided delightful contrasts in organ building and tonal concepts. Thanks also to James Biery for his hospitality and fine playing at the Cathedral and to the 'mistress of the mansion' for opening her home and giving us a tour of the instruments and the newly decorated Louis Hill House. Several non-guild members were on the crawl, a testament to the appeal our instrument holds to players and non-players alike.

The executive board devoted considerable time at its October meeting to discussing the J. Michael Barone Pipe-dreams Scholarship. As many of you know, this scholarship was established by the TCAGO to honor the contributions of Michael Barone to the organ world through scholarships to young musicians wishing to study the organ. Junior and senior high students from the Twin Cities metro with demonstrated keyboard competency are eligible to apply for the Barone scholarship. All of us need to help seek out candidates for this great opportunity. Do you know a student (previous organ studies not required) who hangs around to watch you play the postlude? Do you know a student whose life might just take a new turn if given the opportunity to take organ lessons? Do you know a musical youth with a lively sense of curiosity and some piano background? If yes, please call Steve Gentile, Karen Bartz, Diana Lee Lucker or me. We would love to help that young person discover the rich world of the King of Instruments.

On the national front, the American Guild of Organists has designated 2008-2009 the International Year of the Organ. Organizations throughout the world have been invited to participate with the AGO in a yearlong celebration of the organ that will begin with events at the national convention here in the Twin Cities next June. The year will conclude with regional conventions in the summer of 2009. Every chapter of the AGO is invited to participate in as many ways as they can. Organ Spectacular concerts will ring the globe on October 19, 2008. For more information, please see the IYO website at www.agohq.org/os.

My best wishes for a very happy holiday season!

Convention Corner

Register early to receive the special TCAGO rate!

As this newsletter arrives in your mailbox at the height of preparations for the holidays, you have probably given only passing thought to registering for next summer's national AGO convention. It is important that you give this some thought soon if you want to register at the special TCAGO chapter member rate. To encourage Twin Cities AGO chapter members to register early for the convention, the steering committee decided to give a very special discount rate to those of you who register by January 31, 2008. This special rate is $325 for regular members, $300 for seniors and $195 for students. Non-chapter members who register early are being asked to pay $390 for a regular member, $350 for seniors and $275 for students. After January 31 there are no more discounts available and the rates go up to $430 for regular members, $390 for seniors and $300 for students.

Registration is very simple. You can either register by mail using the forms that are provided in the December issue of The American Organist or you can register online at the convention website www.ago2008.org. Our webmaster has worked very hard to make the online registration process fast, easy and secure.

The members of the steering committee for the 2008 national AGO convention wish everyone a safe and blessed holiday season and look forward to an exciting new year as we continue to plan and prepare for our convention.

Pipe Organ Discovery Day Feb. 23, 2008

By Phil Asgian

Plans are underway for Pipe Organ Discovery Day on Saturday, Feb. 23. As this article goes to press, we are working on two venues in Stillwater for this fun-filled event to expose young people (regardless of age) to the pipe organ. Pipe Organ Discovery Day also provides opportunities for hands-on experience playing with coaching from AGO volunteers. This is also a great opportunity to learn more about how the pipe organ works. A registration flyer is e-mailed separately. If you have piano students who may be interested in the organ – this could be a great opportunity for them to consider expanding their reach. □

Challenge Yourself – Prepare for and take the Guild Exam!

Once again it is time to take inventory. How sharp are your tools as a church musician? The AGO certification exams are a good way to improve them or just to keep them at top performance. There are exams for all levels of skill, from the Service Playing Certificate all the way to the Fellowship level. For further information consult the Guild headquarters website <http://www.agohq.org/home.html>, where all of the requirements are spelled out. You may also check with Allan Mahnke, 612-920-4183 (home) or mahnke@csp.edu.

Cathedral of Saint Paul Announces Organ Project

by James Biery

The Cathedral of Saint Paul is pleased to announce that a contract has been signed with Quimby Pipe Organs of Warrensburg, Missouri, for a comprehensive rebuilding of the Cathedral's E. M. Skinner and Æolian-Skinner organs.

The Cathedral is home to a 1927 E. M. Skinner, Opus 518, in the sanctuary behind the main altar, and a 1963 Æolian-Skinner, Opus 1398, in the rear gallery. The Quimby project will include complete tonal refurbishing of both organs, with the goal of recapturing the Ernest Skinner and post-G. Donald Harrison sound of the instruments.

A new Bombarde division in the Harrison style will be added to the gallery organ, above the existing Choir expression box. The new division will consist of: Open Diapason 8', Flute Harmonique 8', Octave 4', Twelfth 2 2/3', Super Octave 2', Mixture IV, Trompettes Harmonique 16' and 8', and a Trompette Heroique modeled on the State Trumpet at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City.

Other tonal additions to the gallery organ include a new full-length 32-foot Bombarde, a new Pedal mixture and an English Horn and Mixture to the existing Choir.

Both organs will be completely rewired and provided with solid-state switching. The gallery windchest mechanisms will be releathered, and all the existing pipework will be cleaned and restored.

Two new identical four-manual consoles in the Skinner style will be provided to properly control the resources of both organs.

The existing asymmetrical façade will be altered using new zinc extensions, in order to achieve visual symmetry.

When completed in late 2009, the combined organs will total 86 ranks.

Directors of Music at the Cathedral are Marilyn and James Biery. Lawrence Lawyer is Assistant in Music. □

The Minnesota Chapter of the AGO had its first meeting on Wednesday night, November 23, 1910 at St. John the Evangelist Church in St. Paul. The fourth meeting and the first public service of the Chapter was also held at St. John the Evangelist. The date was March 15, 1911. George Fairclough, our first dean, played an organ recital at 5 p.m. Rev. Theodore Sedgewick, Rector of St. John's, spoke at a dinner in the Guild Hall at 6:30. He welcomed the Chapter and commented on the value of the organization in getting organists together to exchange ideas.

At 7:45, the choir of St. John's sang John Maunder's cantata, Penitence, Pardon and Peace. Stanley Avery of St. Mark's Cathedral in Minneapolis played the prelude. He was amongst our first executive board members. P. W. Thorne of Christ Church in St. Paul played the postlude. He was our first secretary. George Fairclough played the service.

As we bid farewell to an old year and look ahead to 2008, we reflect on our history and consider that we will soon be celebrating our centennial. How should we celebrate 100 years as a chapter? Is the John Maunder cantata that was sung almost 97 years ago still in the St. John the Evangelist choral library? Should we hear it again in 2010?

In an upcoming Pipenotes issue, I'll write about what we did at our 50th Anniversary. I wrote about our 1935, 25th Anniversary in the November, 2004 Pipenotes on page six. Also, the first four paragraphs from our first meeting are printed in that issue. If you don't have a "hard" copy and have internet access, that issue is viewable on our website at <http://www.tcago.org> Click "Archives" on the left side of the home page and Pipenotes Archives opens. Find the year and then select the month.

By the way, we changed our name from the Minnesota Chapter to the Twin Cities Chapter on May 26, 1958.

Let me, TCAGO officers or board members know if you have suggestions for our centennial celebration in 2010. If you have additions for our TCAGO history, let me know that too. Thank you and best wishes in the New Year.

Jerry Bonstrom, Archivist
